

PERMIT TO ENGAGE IN FISHERY OPERATIONS WITHIN THE ALASKA PENINSULA FISHERIES RESERVATION

Permit No. 86-1924.

International Packing Company,
Santa Flavia - floating cannery.

February 9, 1924.

- - - - -

A reservation designated as the Alaska Peninsula Fisheries Reservation having been created by the Executive Order of February 17, 1922, the International Packing Company, whose home office is at Seattle, Washington, is hereby authorized to operate the motorship Santa Flavia as a floating plant for the canning and salting of salmon for commercial purposes in Makushin Bay, within the Aleutian Islands District of the said reservation, during the calendar year 1924 under the following conditions:

1. That no fishing operations shall be carried on in the district before August 1, 1924, but thereafter the permittee may use five (5) beach seines in Makushin Bay,
2. It is understood that natives residing in the vicinity are to be employed to the greatest extent possible in the fishing and canning operations carried on under this permit.
3. That in view of the limitation on apparatus no case limit is set on the pack of this cannery for the season of 1924.
4. That the company shall observe the existing laws and regulations for the protection of the fisheries of Alaska and for the administration of the said reservation (copies of which are attached hereto and the conditions of which are made a part of this permit), as well as those that may hereafter be enacted or promulgated for such purposes.
5. That this permit expires December 31, 1924, is not transferable, and is revocable at any time at the pleasure of the Secretary of Commerce.

S. E. DAVIS

Acting Secretary of Commerce.
